

Reading Colors Your World

A monthly collection of the best writing and art of Elkhorn students from preschool to middle school. Available to the public in the library each month, located above the early readers.

Submission guidelines

Who can submit?

- Kids in preschool through middle school.

What can they submit?

- Art, including photographs, and writing, both fiction and nonfiction. All submissions should fit on an 8x11 sheet of paper and be no more than 10 pages long.

How do you choose what is included?

- Library staff will review submissions for quality, appropriate content, and space.

How do kids submit their work?

- Fill out a submission form and include it with your art or writing. If you are submitting it electronically, send to jwharton@elkhorn.lib.wi.us. Hard copies can be dropped off at the library or sent via the school delivery van by teachers. Don't forget to proofread, edit, and turn in your best work!

We cannot return your submissions, so make sure you submit a photo of your art or a copy of your writing.

Submission form:

How do you want to be listed in Reading Colors Your World? You can include your name, age/grade, and school

Title of your work:

Tell us about your work in one or two sentences:

School permission slip

Your child is invited to contribute to Reading Colors Your World, a monthly collection of art and writing published at the Matheson Memorial Public Library in Elkhorn WI and available to the public in print at the library.

YES my child can contribute art or writing to RCYW NO my child cannot contribute art or writing to RCYW

If YES, please write how you would like your child's information to appear (leave blank any sections you want left out)

Name:

Age/Grade:

School: